SSWCA 2027 Conference: THE SPACE TO PLAY OUTSIDE THE BOX

March 2027 | Renaissance High School | Meridian, ID
Contact: conference@sswca.org

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES: WHY SSWCA?

Partnering with SSWCA gives you unique access to a broad secondary and postsecondary attendance base: writing and peer tutoring center directors, department and school administrators, and tutors from up to 100+ middle school, high school, and postsecondary institutions from across the country.

- Writing or Peer Tutoring Center Directors and School Administrators, in addition to working in writing centers and writing programs in their institutions, often select and purchase academic resources for students and teachers.
- Middle and High School Student Tutors who attend and present at this conference are college-ready and college-bound students who are among the most competitive in their classes and who have demonstrated commitment to their own academic growth and community building through volunteering as peer tutors and serving in leadership roles in their writing and learning centers.

Reach established and new audiences by sponsoring the only conference dedicated to secondary peer tutoring centers. In its fifteenth year, our annual conference reached over 200 participants from 20 states in 2026. This is a unique community of motivated tutors, teachers, and administrators who have designed and are running programs on the cutting edge of collaborative and peer-based learning and writing instruction.

A PERSONALIZED APPROACH

This year, we invite our sponsors to choose exactly where their contribution will go including options to sponsor individuals with a grant in your institution's name. Your personal grant and the recipient(s) will be published on our website to clearly show our community your gift. All sponsors will be listed on our website, our online conference platform, and our conference program as well as being featured in our weekly emails sent to over 750 subscribers.
